

I am offended for myself and my children at the level of violence that is on television during day and early evening hours. My children and I should be able to watch a football game or anything else as a family without having commercials with incredibly violent scenes (ie. 24 show on FOX) advertised during this time.